

EXCURSION TO BOLZANO (BOZEN)
INCLUDING THE SOUTH TYROL MUSEUM OF ARCHAEOLOGY
WITH THE FAMOUS ICEMAN "OETZI"

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 2012

For Sunday February 26, 2012, we are organizing for all interested participants who want to stay in Trento one more night, an excursion to Bolzano (Bozen, South Tyrol) to visit the South Tyrol Museum of Archaeology with The Famous Iceman "Oetzi".

The programme includes: bus transfer from Trento to Bolzano and return, guided tour of the historical centre of the city of Bolzano (about 1 hour) and visit of the South Tyrol Museum of Archaeology.

Duration: half day (8:30 – 13:00 ca)

Price: € 37,00 (The price includes: bus transfer, guided tour, entrance fee at the Museum)

The excursion will be realized only with a minimum number of 15 participants.

BOLZANO

Bolzano (Bozen), 'Gateway to the Dolomites', lies in a broad valley basin at an altitude of 265 metres (870 ft), with three beautiful Alpine high plateaux of rolling hills encircling it from north-east to north-west.

Gothic steeples, awesome peaks and breathtaking contrasts. A town brimful of vitality and charm. The towers of Rosengarten as a backdrop to the ornate spires in the town's bustling streets, where northern and southern European cultures, languages and climates merge.

For information and reservation please write to: info@rivatour.it